President Likely to Ask Change in Volstead Law

RESULT OF DAUGHERTY RULE

Ship Ban Expected to Cause International Tangle

(BY WILLIAM J. LOSH)

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — President Harding and his cabinet are considering asking Congress to modify the Volstead law as the result of the Daugherty ruling which makes the sea "much drier."

Following a tangle with the powers of the world, leading officials of the administration are gradually coming to believe that the ruling goes too far. They assert, in view of the text of the Volstead law and the decisions of the Supreme court that it can be modified only amending the prohibition act.

MILLION'S VIEWS

The view that regulations for enforcing the ruling are too extreme held by secretary of the Treasury Mellon who had refused to approve imposing the penalty of seizure and forfeiture on ships found to be carrying liquor in violation of the law.

REFUGEES OF SEA WILL REACH MAINLAND SUNDAY

GREEKS RUSH TO WAR FRONT

Army Speedily Reorganized Despite Peace Orders

ATHENS — (United Press) — Two well-equipped battalions of Greek soldiers were rushed to the front today, despite assurances of the Hellenic government that it had accepted the Medania armistice, which becomes effective at midnight.

Reorganization of the army was feverishly pushed altho the Greek government has ordered its troops and nationals to start evacuation of Thrace at once and has commandeered railroads in the territory to carry out the order.

Transports have been rushed to Rodosto and other Thracian ports to evacuate troops, munitions and 7,500 tons of Greek-owned wheat. It was believed the sending of troops toward Thrace was done by enthusiastic commanders without acquiescence of the government.

STATE INVESTIGATOR SOUGHT

Case Bungled by County Officials, Governor is Told

(BY GERALD OVERTON)

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. — Officials of Somerset and Middlesex counties have bungled investigation of the Hall-Mills murder until "no one is safe" from their clumsy suspicion, Mrs. Frances N. Hall, widow of the slain pastor, charged today.

Mrs. Hall made this sharp denunciation of Prosecutors Beckman and Strickler as they moved to quit her once more concerning her part in the mystery.

In a letter to Governor Edwards, Timothy Pfeiffer, counsel for the widow, demanded appointment of a state investigator to take charge of the case. He expressed in so many words a belief that since the authorities had found a reason for Clifford Hayes' arrest in the unreliable statements of Raymond Schneider, Mrs. Hall might be exposed to a similar indignity if the county prosecutors pursued their present course.

REPLY AWAITED

Governor Edwards reply was awaited with great interest in New Brunswick, where the revision of officialdom to first principles in the case awakened fresh interest in the mystery.

JUSTICE DAY MAY RESIGN WITHIN NEXT TEN DAYS

WASHINGTON — The belief prevailed in semi-official circles today that Associated Justice William R. Day, of the United States supreme court, will send a letter of resignation to President Harding in the near future, possibly within the next ten days.

Justice Day, it was reported, has definitely made up his mind that his duties as umpire in the settlement of war claims with Germany will be of such magnitude as to require his entire time. The probability that his work as umpire would necessitate a trip abroad is said to have influenced him finally against making an effort to remain on the bench while acting in his new capacity.

HOTEL WRECKED BY DYNAMITE

One Killed and 12 Injured in Oklahoma Explosion

BRISTOW, Okla. — (United Press) — One man was killed and 12 other guests were injured when the Illinois Hotel here was dynamited early today.

Nick Redwine, oil field worker, lost his life in the explosion and 12 other guests were injured when the Illinois Hotel here was dynamited early today.

The hotel was levelled by the blast but fire did not follow and volunteers carried out their rescue work without hindrance, thus preventing great loss of life. Splinters were driven into the bodies of Miss Jones and Farrell by

Air Stunt Performer Killed in Mysterious Accident

SUSPENDED BY HER TEETH

Dragged to Death When Plane Makes Landing

CLEVELAND, Tenn. — (Associated Press)

The body of Miss Eva Moss, 20-year-old Chattanooga stenographer, killed yesterday in a unique airplane accident during a flight in which she was to have stepped from the apprentice to the professional class of stunt performers, today was enroute back home for burial.

The airplane piloted by Aviator Peebles, soared to 2,000 feet, when Miss Moss climbed out on a wing, descended a 25 foot rope ladder and suspended herself by her teeth.

Then came time for her to climb back into the plane for the return to earth—her apprenticeship ended. But exhaustion, fear or perhaps both had overtaken her, and she was unable to make her way back.

TRAGEDY SENSIED
Peebles, seeing her predicament, flew low over a lake and motioned for her to drop but she feared to take the chance or else was entangled and could not, so again the plane soared into the clouds.

The mechanic on the ground, sensing the tragedy, sent a hurry call for an ambulance and doctor. Still the plane circled about, giving the girl every chance to make her way back, but darkness was

Shappell Petroleum Products Co. Building Totally Destroyed When Gasoline Becomes Ignited—Father Saves Family of Five From Death In Flames

Electric Spark Believed to Have Started Fire Causing $15,000 Damages—Repeated Blasts and Blazing Oil Threaten Reserve Tanks

Five persons narrowly escaped death early Saturday morning when more than 1,500 gallons of oil and gasoline stored in two tank wagons at the Shappell Petroleum Products Co. plant in West-st road exploded tearing the building to pieces.

In a fire which followed two tank trucks, a Cadillac touring car and hundreds of gallons of gasoline motor oil and kerosene were destroyed. The total loss it is estimated will exceed $15,000.

Origin of the disaster is attributed to static electricity by Fire Chief John Mack, who made an investigation of the explosion shortly after 6 a. m. One of two tank wagons became ignited as it was being filled.

Occupants of the building, Simon Sueary, 27, his wife and three children, Violet, 6, Willard 4 and Edith 3, escaped by fleeing for their lives when the first blaze which was followed by the explosion of the first tank wagon started.

Sueary, who is employed by the Shappell company had filled one wagon, and had the second almost full when he discovered a spark. He tried to beat out the flame which followed with his cap.

PROFIT IS FIXED

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — Retailers' margins of profit on each ton of coal sold at retail in Ohio, whether Obtained or imported into the state, were fixed today by State Fuel Administrator Neal, and announced by Governor Davis. The average is $1.86 a ton and there are 106 separate margins. This completes the first entire regulation by the state of the price of coal from mine to consumer, under the emergency legislation recently enacted.

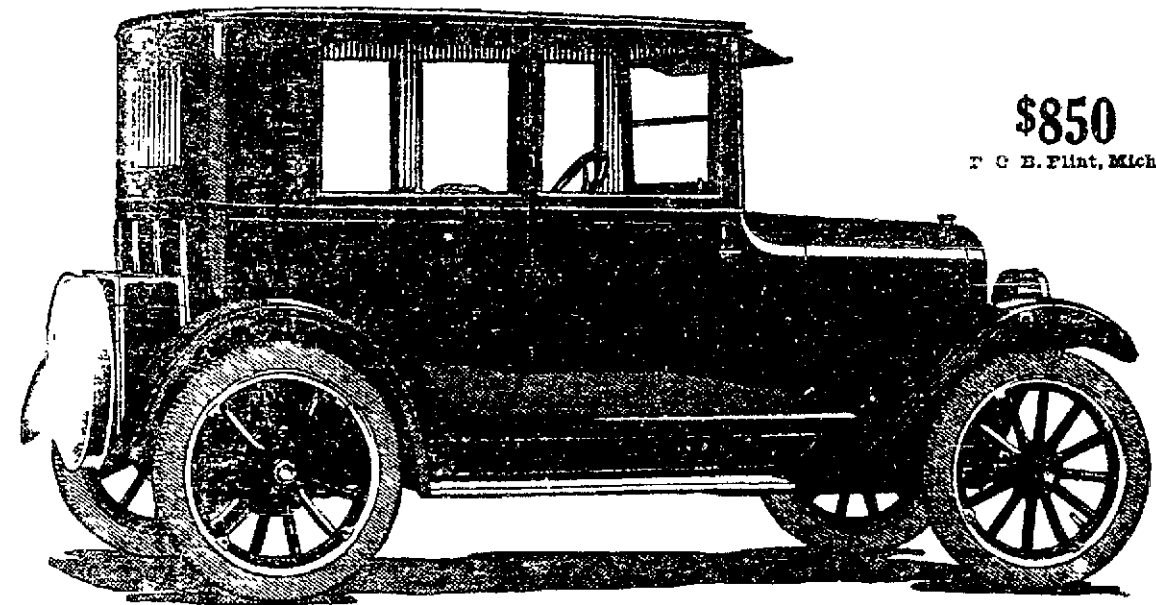

Knowing well what was to come he ran into the building and upstairs where his wife was working and his three children were asleep. He seized two of the children and with his wife carrying a third, they ran from the doomed building. Once out side they headed north toward the entrance of the state hospital grounds. Behind them a dull red glow was commencing to mount higher and higher.

EVIL HOOKED
When they were 200 feet north of the station the earth rocked and trembled beneath their feet, as the tank on which the fire had started let loose.

Flames shot 50 feet in the air as the wooden structure caught fire from the exploding gasoline. None

IMPORTANT OHIO CONFERENCE GAMES ON TODAY

16 TEAMS OPEN UP

COLUMBUS — While Ohio State and Oberlin were meeting at the stadium here today with the Buckeyes beating on average last year's 7 to 6 defeat, Ohio conference teams passed thru the preparatory stages of the season and were swinging into the portion of their schedules which count in determining the conference championship. No less than eight games which will help to settle the conference championship were being played.

Most attention was being paid to three games, the battle between Ohio State and Oberlin, that between Ohio State and Denison at Athens and the clash in which Akron meets Miami for the first time in several years.

The Buckeyes in their annual meeting with Oberlin were expected to develop further whether they have developed sufficient class to be like contenders in their Western Conference season which starts next Saturday with Michigan. Numerous measures were shown last Saturday when Ohio Wesleyan held them to a 7 to 0 score and today's contest was expected to show to some extent what success Jack Wiley has had in building up a team from much untried material. Oberlin was much expected to repeat its feat of a year ago, but Coach Stallings held hopes for a small score.

Denison and Ohio University, always bitter rivals, were expected to have a well played contest at Athens. Considerable strength has been shown by the Granville aggregation in two previous games and they are expected to put on the field its usual rugged and hard driven team.

Miami, with Coach Ewing at the helm, George Little's successor, was to make its initial appearance of the season today. Loss of several stars of last year was regarded as a handicap for the down-state team in game with Akron which, although it had Reserve by a large score in the first game of the season, fell before Wooster 14 to 0 last Saturday.

WESLEYAN AT ADA — Those defense stars of Ohio State last year, who met Ohio Northern at Ada, with prospects bright for a continuation of the auspicious start the team has made. Wooster facing the team from Ada, was regarded as probably winner on the basis of previous performance.

Ohio conference games included Michigan vs. Western Reserve at Akron, in which the former was expected to be the winner; Muskingum vs. Oberlin at Westerville; Mt. Union vs. Heidelberg at Tiffin; and the game between Keokuk and Gambier.

The Ohio eleven were trying to break through against outsiders with the hope of bettering the records of the Buckeye State teams which have met disaster in foreign fields. Miami University met Georgetown at Washington, D. C.; Baldwin University journeyed to Detroit and was regarded as probable winner at the hands of Detroit University and Marquette after a series of defeats, met Marshall.

STARS ARE INJURED — The O. N. U. football team was forced to play Ohio Wesleyan here today minus the services of Johnson, mainstay of the team, called home on account of illness of his father. Fisher, all-Ohio all-star, who is suffering from an attack of influenza, Tommy Lewis, guard and "Red" Mooney, left half, both injured.

Coach Norton gave his scrubs a good once over for material to fill in.

EXPERT IN SHOOT — John L. Tabor, Newark, Ohio, today giving the Winchester company an exhibition of shooting at the regular meet of the Lima Rifle Gun Club Friday.

Tabor, whose percentage for the season in shoots over the entire country is 85 did some trapshooting with a program of fancy marksmanship. Thirty were in attendance.

BOB MEUSEL HITS HOMER WITH 3 ON

PERRY, Ia. — Bob Meusel, star centerfielder of the New York Americans, knocked out home run with three on bases for Pella in the first inning of yesterday's exhibition game here between the semi-professional teams from Perry and Pella. Pella only scored were made in the first inning, losing to Perry 12 to 4. Babe Ruth played first base for Perry. He knocked out two three-base hits and one single in five times at bat.

This was the first of a series of nineteen barnstorming exhibition games to be played during the coming weeks by Ruth and Meusel.

Under Coach Stallings, last year's captain, the squad arrived here today determined to repeat last year's feat if possible, but apparently building up hopes of holding the Buckeyes to a small score. New material in the lineup has proved a problem for Stallings.

The Buckeyes, after a week of drill since Wesleyan's defensive triumph of last Saturday, were expected to show a more offensive drive today.

A slightly shifted lineup was to face Oberlin today. Instead of Schweinsberger plans were for the placing of Florette at left end. Young, regular lineman of last year, was slated to take his position at left tackle providing scholars difficulties were disposed of, and McHugh, regular fullback hampered by injuries against Wesleyan was to start at fullback. Blair, it was thought, would start at left half in place of Farassian.

The probable lineup: OBERLIN Florette.....lg.....Winters Young.....lg.....Speigler Pixley (C).....lg.....McFarland Pauley.....c.....Slessinger Kuller.....rg.....Gould Petcoff.....rt.....Sandsy Honaker.....rg.....Richards (C) Workman.....q.....Weber Blair.....lg.....Jones Isabel.....rt.....Wood Michaels.....fb.....Farman

CUBS GET EDGE IN CHICAGO SERIES

CHICAGO — The Chicago Nationals batted Ted Blankenship off the mound yesterday and took the edge in the city series, three games to two, by defeating the American League's 7 to 2. Blankenship allowed only two scrab hits until the Cubs launched their heavy attack against him in the sixth. Aldridge was backed up by some sterling support in the pinches. Score: SOX.....030 101 000—2 7 2 CUBS.....200 005 000—7 9 3 T. Blankenship, Duff and Schaal. Aldridge and O'Farrell.

ARMY VS. AUBURN

West Point Army is expected to have quite a battle on the West Point field when the whistle sounds for the kickoff for her contest with Auburn. Bill Poper's Tigers will meet Colgate at the Princeton stadium and the Annapolis midshipmen are pitted against Bucknell on the Navy Field.

Other contests in the east include: Harvard vs. Bowdoin at Cambridge; Georgetown vs. Cincinnati at Washington, D. C.; Pennsylvania vs. Maryland at Philadelphia; Pittsburgh vs. West Virginia, at Pittsburgh; Brown vs. Syracuse at Providence and Cornell vs. New Hampshire State at Ithaca.

MUCH AT STAKE IN IOWA-YALE GAME

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — The unofficial championship of the Jones family and of those sections of organized football which attract greatest popular interest was at stake in today's inter-sectional game in the Yale bowl between Yale and the University of Iowa.

Last year's champion eleven of the Western Conference, coached by Howard H. Jones, came some 1500 miles to play a member of the "Big Three" which defeated one and lost to the other member of the Princeton-Harvard-Yale triangle last season and which is coached by Tad Jones, Howard's brother.

Preparations were made for an unprecedented midseason crowd of 50,000 fans, eager for a game of thrills. Confident predictions of victory by partisans led neutrals to believe that the result would be in doubt until the last whistle blew.

PLAYED ON SAME TEAM

Interest in the game was increased by the fact that Howard Jones played on the same eleven at Yale, once a substitute end and the other an all-American quarterback and by the fact that each has been the only Yale coach in recent years whose pupils have attained the summit of Yale football ambitions and defeated Harvard in the season's climax.

Many arguments in comparison of midwestern and eastern football probably will arise from the result of today's game, for such inter-sectional clashes seemed doomed as both the Western Conference and the "Big Three" have frowned upon distant trips for inter-sectional games in the future.

Yale followers' pessimism over injuries to stars seemed today to have turned to optimism. With O'Hearn, star quarterback, and Captain Jordan, another back, out of the game because of injuries, there was a feeling early in the week that Iowa would win and that after all today's

The improvement in Wapakoneta's lineup was made with the idea of matching the Independent's hitting strength. Vosler will have to hustle to bring up sluggers of the ability of Billy Southworth, Jack Shaffer, Frank Gihoolley, Danny O'Connell, Marty Ney, Chuck Nichols and Harry Schwalb.

50,000 GATHER IN YALE BOWL

(BY FRANK GETTY) NEW HAVEN, Conn. — Out of the west, not unlike Young Lochinvar of old, come 11 or more husky Hawkeye gridiron warriors to test the mettle of Old Eli in the years big inter-sectional football battle.

East and west are stirred over the contest as never before in mid-season. Fair weather is promised for the battle, crackling football air such as a late Indian summer has not yet provided, and 50,000 spectators are expected for the contest.

The Yale-Iowa game today has called society, old time football heroes, and pigskin fans from all parts of the east to New Haven. Some have come from the Mississippi valley, scene of Iowa's conclusive victory over western conference opponents last year. It will be inspirational against tradition when the big teams meet. The Hawkeye eleven will be carrying the west's challenge to eastern claims of football supremacy. Old Eli will be dug in to defend the claim.

Picking a winner is easy. Only a tie can baffle the prophets. Coach Jones' men should triumph. Brother Howard leads the Iowa team and Brother Tad pilots the Yale eleven, so it will be all in the family, however, the outcome.

Yale will be severely handicapped by probable absence of Doc Jordan, her captain and two of her field generals, Beckett and O'Hearn.

PICK MINNESOTA, CHICAGO TO WIN

CHICAGO.—Most of the followers of Big Ten football picked Chicago and Minnesota to win their respective games with Northwestern and Indiana today in the year's first games.

These two contests, one at Stagg Field, the other at Indianapolis, were the only games directly affecting the championship race of the Western Conference, the other six teams of the Big Ten playing outsiders.

Opinions on the Purdue-Notre Dame game at Lafayette were divided with Rockne's eleven apparently holding the edge in the majority of forecasts.

Of the other conference schools, Michigan played Vanderbilt at Nashville, Tenn. Wisconsin entertained South Dakota at Madison, Illinois. Had Butler at Urbana and Ohio State met Oberlin at Columbus.

MALONE, KARR HAZZED BOSTON — The welterweight battle here last night between Jack Malone, St. Paul, and Johnny Karr, Cleveland, was declared no contest in the third round by the referee who said the men were not trying. Karr had defeated Malone twice previously.

MISKE CLAIMS BOUT IN 10th ON FOUL

(BY JACKSON V. SCHOLZ) NEW YORK — Billy Miske today claims the official distinction of being a better man than Tom Gibbons—but it doesn't mean anything. Their bout scheduled for 15 rounds, ended in the tenth when Miske crumpled to the mat and claimed a foul, which after a moment's hesitation was sustained by Referee Billy McPartland.

The blow that ended things was seen by few, a circumstance which naturally gave rise to a lot of audible disapproval from the crowd in Madison Square Garden.

Gibbons seemed as much surprised as anyone at the sudden ending and wandered around, in a daze, until he was officially disqualified.

MADE HIM LOOK BAD Altho Gibbons conceded 11 pounds to Miske, together with a marked difference in reach, he made the latter look like a husky lumber jack, engaged in the pastime of picking mosquitoes out of the air. Gibbons uncorked a shifty vicious attack in the first few rounds and found a landing place for almost every punch he started while Miske, trying desperately to locate his opponent, wasted tons of energy in wild swings that would have floored an ox. Miske tried several times to make use of his advantage in reach and hold himself out of harm's way by placing his glove playfully on top of Gibbons' skull.

Only his ability to take punishment saved Miske from becoming a victim of the Gibbons offensive in the early rounds. Miske's solo thought seemed to be a desire to land one of his haymakers and have it over with.

FATHER DEAD A dramatic incident of the kind that goes to make fiction was introduced when telegram was brought for Gibbons before the bout started. His manager Eddie Kane refused to show it to him. The contents, however, were perhaps known to Gibbons, who after battering Miske for ten rounds and finally losing the decision on a foul, snatched the telegram from Kane and found that his worst fears were realized. His father who had been ill for some time was dead.

NEW YORK — They tell stories about actors sometimes going out on the stage after they have received news of the death of a husband or wife, reciting their regular lines and making indifferent folk feel happy and laugh. Probably those stories are true.

They must be true. Any one of the crowd that filled Madison Square Garden last night and saw Tommy Gibbons of St. Paul, lose on a foul to Billy Miske, in the tenth round of their bout that was to go 15 rounds probably will believe so today.
